

BARN RULES

Initial ↓	Attendance Requirements: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Clients must provide a 24-hour cancellation notice.</li> <li>Cancellation made the day of appointment will be considered an unexcused absence.</li> <li>The client's failure to report for an appointment (no show) will be considered an unexcused absence.</li> <li>If you miss an appointment without notifying us in advance, this counts as an unexcused, no show absence. All remaining appointments will be canceled. You will have to reschedule appointments 1 week at a time.</li> <li>Because we understand that unavoidable, absences may occur; clients will be allowed 1 unexcused absence. In the event of another unexcused absence, the client must provide documentation for their absence (doctor's note, receipt, etc.), OR will be placed at the end of the waiting list, and cannot schedule an appointment until they have moved through the waiting list.</li> <li>After two unexcused absences (3rd unexcused), the client will be placed on a scheduling probation, and will not be able to schedule an appointment for Mane Event until the next Mane Event season starts</li> <li>In the event that Hope Remains Ranch needs to cancel due to bad weather or sickness, the scheduling system will send an email to the client. The client will need to check their email at 2pm each day they have an appointment to be sure that there have not been any cancellations.</li> </ul>
